Sharing Information Across HDP Pillars: Ethiopia Case Study

May 9, 2023

"Data sharing is not only an ethical imperative, it is a practical necessity for effective international development and humanitarian programs. By sharing data, we can avoid duplication of effort, identify best practices, and coordinate resources to deliver more impactful solutions to the world's most pressing problems."

- Rajiv Shah, President of The Rockefeller Foundation.

At the end of this session we'll...

---

1. Articulate the value of data sharing across HDP pillars
2. Have a deeper understanding of the challenges of data sharing across HDP pillars
3. Have identified an action item to broaden your organization's data sharing efforts
